MISSIONARIES TO HONDURAS

Ministry News

We have added another member to our team! Carol Carney is a clinical nurse instructor and believes the Lord is leading her to work at the Hogar de Amor in Honduras. This is a wonderful answer to prayer!

Support Update

We received word this month of two more supporting churches. This puts us right around 54% of our needed support level. Praise the Lord!

Personal Praise

Aleassa has had back and neck trouble for many years. Recently, we were recommended to a chiropractic specialist. The cost for the first appointment was going to be several hundred dollars, which was not in our budget. However, when it came time to pay, they only charged us $20. What a blessing!

Commit thy way unto the Lord; trust also in him; and he shall bring it to pass. Psalm 37:5.

Over and over again, the Lord reveals to me that the only reason anything is accomplished in my life is because He brings it to pass. It is not because I am clever, or because I'm lucky, or because I have a secret formula. It is all because of Him. I, in and of myself, am nothing, yet He chooses to use me to accomplish what He desires. What an honor and privilege!

This month has been light on meetings, but busy with establishing contacts. The extra time has allowed the children to get ahead on schoolwork before a busy travel season begins again. We have had the opportunity to visit many missions-minded churches in the Northwest Florida area and been encouraged on countless occasions by people God has placed in our path.

We recently started the passport process for our children, which is an exciting big step toward Honduras in 2015.

Travel Schedule

Over the next couple of months, we have conferences and meetings scheduled in the Alabama and Florida area before heading back north in the spring. We are looking forward to seeing how God shows Himself great in the year to come.
